

5 Aesthetic Room Decor Ideas for Your Custom Home in Salt Lake City

If you're looking for ways to decorate your custom room at your home in Salt Lake City, you've come to the right place! When it comes to cute room designs, stick to the basics—decor. Rather than spending a lot of time and money on wallpaper or paint for your room, and a few room essentials to make your custom room your own.

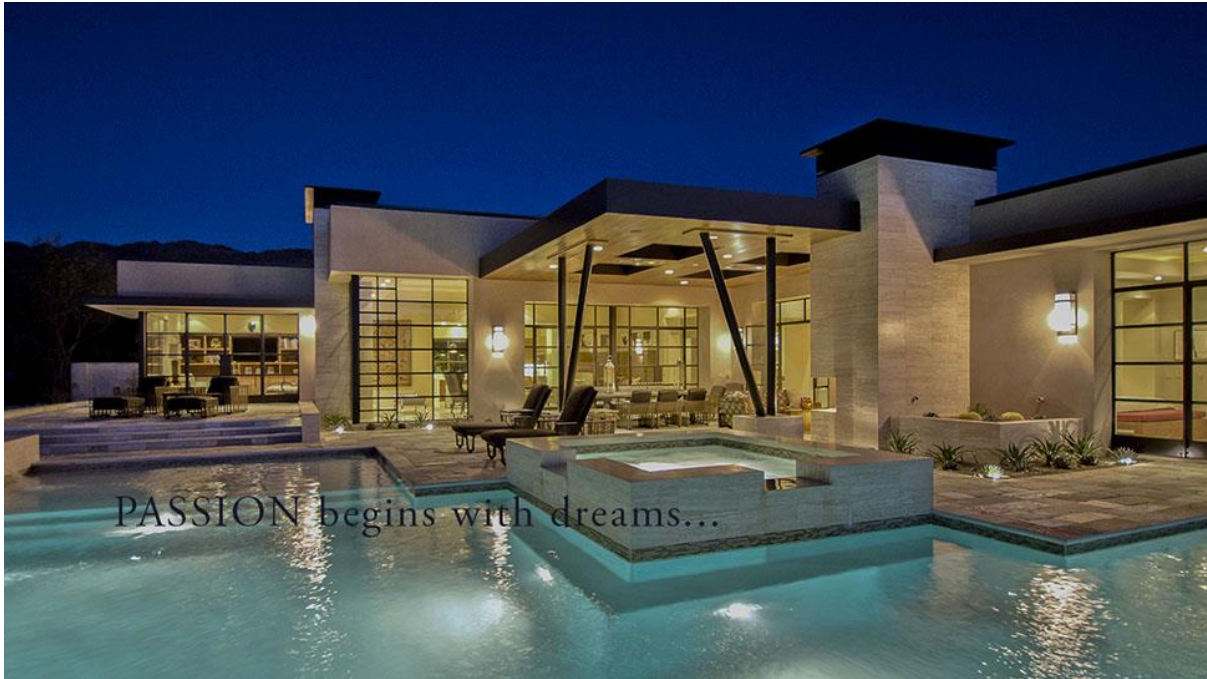

Plants

Bring your room to life with plants, vines, and trees! If you're more of the floral type, consider pressing flowers and taping them to your walls to create a cottage core look. When it comes to indoor plants, peace lilies are a great way to go. They thrive in dimly lit climates and serve as a natural air purifier. English ivy is another great plant to add to your custom home. It grows particularly fast and thrives in almost any location. The English ivy is a decorative hanging plant that will add greatly to your home's earthy theme.

Mirrors

If your room feels cluttered and dim, mirrors are a simple, aesthetic way to fix that. A mirror or two will help your room feel more spacious and serene as well as increase the light throughout your room. If a mirror feels too plain for the look you're going for, line your mirror with lights or hanging vines to coordinate it with the rest of your custom home in Salt Lake City.

Polaroid's

It may sound cliché, but Polaroid pictures are a great way to give your home a little extra color and make it your own. Polaroid's can be hung haphazardly across the walls or neatly in a line above your bed. You may also consider hanging your Polaroid's from clothespins so that they may be easily altered and adjusted. Print off a few of your favorite pictures of sunsets and your friends to make your room in Salt Lake City feel customized and personal.

Stickers

Stickers go quite well with Polaroid's and can be easily placed in any area of your room. Decorate your bedposts, walls, ceilings, desk, and just about anything else in your home with cute, customized stickers! Extra points for glow-in-the-dark star stickers. A few common sticker ideas include planets, waves, flowers, and the sun.

Tapestries

Tapestries are an underappreciated way to add style to your room. If you're having trouble deciding on a theme for your room, browse a few custom home tapestries on Amazon and center your room's theme around that. You may go for a black and white starry night tapestry, or maybe you're more inclined to choose a colorful world map. If you love the beach, go for a sunny or wave-themed tapestry.
